MATERIAL FOR PUBLICATION

THE REPORT welcomes manuscripts of OHIO material for proposed publication. All manuscripts should be sent to:

THE EDITOR, 4649 YARMOUTH LANE, YOUNGSTOWN, OH 44512

The manuscript should be typed on standard-sized paper and have the author's name on each page; the pages should be numbered. A cover letter, giving permission from the author to publish the material in THE REPORT, should accompany the manuscript. Restrictions of any kind may not be placed on material to be published.

When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please send a typed transcript for us to work from; it is usually much clearer on the original in your possession than on a photocopy.

The types of records requested for publication include Bible records, Ohio county court records (marriages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts or other), Ohio cemetery inscriptions (not alphabetized), "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular repository, etc.), abstracts from Ohio newspapers, brief family genealogies with Ohio connections (fully documented) and other material of an unusual but useful nature. The Editor makes the final decision on material to be published. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but the Ohio Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by contributors. All material is published with the permission of the contributor.

FIRST FAMILIES OF OHIO ROSTER, 1990-1991

DR. H.S. RITTER, CHAIRMAN

The following list contains the pioneer ancestors and new members inducted at the 1991 annual convention of the Ohio Genealogical Society, April 28, 1990, at Columbus Ohio, and includes applications received through March 13, 1991. During this year, FIRST FAMILIES OF OHIO has acquired 153 new members who have proven pioneer ancestors #7111 to #7410. The total number of pioneers in FFO now totals 7432. Membership has now reached 2421.

Due to the fact that we now alphabetize the pioneer list, we cannot see how many ancestors are proven by new members. We'd like to call attention to those who have proven a considerable number of ancestors: The record this year goes to Mary Ellen Cassel Case of Dayton, OH (25); Lois J. Stange of Napoleon, OH (22); Joseph W. Shannon III, Sean C. Shannon, Betsy Lyn Shannon & Susan Lyn Shannon (17 each); Amelia Moore Tilman & Ruth Moore Matkin (16 each). Previous members who have proven additional ancestors are: Robert E. Grim (11); Raymond M. Grim Jr. (11), Dorothy Pray Wilson (11), and James Gamble Kinsman (9).

CHARLES RUSSELL

by William E. Plants, Box 166, Gallipolis OH 45631
age 16, Senior Division Winner

The warm sun bathed my face as I stood in Fairview Cemetery[1] at Bidwell, Ohio on June 3, 1989. I was there to attend a ceremony honoring my great great great great grandfather, Charles Russell. The Meigs County Ewings Chapter of the Sons of the Revolution[2] from Pomeroy, Ohio, had chosen to honor Charles, for his service to our country, by placing a bronze marker at his grave.

I looked down upon the shiny plaque and it seemed that the name "Charles Russell" leaped out at me. A sense of pride surged through me as my mind raced back in time to a boat docked near the New Jersey shore in 1720. As he stepped onto the soil of America, he was looking forward to making a new life away from his Irish homeland. He probably knew it would not be an easy task but was accepting the challenge to help make a better world for himself as well as for future generations.

The Russell name is from Norman origin and traces back to Hugh de Rosel who went to England during the conquest of 1066 A.D. Hugh's ancestors were the Bertrands, barons of Briqubic Castle[3]. This family's traits of blodness, truthfulness and ardour for liberty have carried down through the generations[4].

The new immigrant was skilled as a carpenter[5] so he was kept busy making furniture for his new neighbors. He did find time, however, to court and later marry an English woman. They settled in Huntington[6], New Jersey and in 1759 they added their fifth and final child to the household. This baby, named Charles, was welcomed by a sister, Sarah, and brothers, Thomas, William and Moses[7].

"Bob White, Bob White," called a whippoorwill, as my thoughts returned to the present. The wind was blowing, ever so gently, and made the daisies dance throughout the grasslands of the area. Birds on nearby branches were chirping. Their voices seemed so loud in the quiet and peaceful countryside.

As the speaker's voice intoned the service record of Charles, I fixed my eyes on the small American flags outlining his grave. As the flags waved, I could almost hear the drumbeat and the tramping footsteps as Charles and his comrades marched to meet the enemy that day so long ago.

A bee buzzed by and flew off to find a favorite flower. I looked around at the crowd and my eyes came to rest upon my cousin, Phillip Russell. I noticed how much he seemed to fit the description of the Russell family members with his tall stature, broad shoulders and handsome features[8]. He was listening intently to a young speaker recite a poem about brave men. I wondered if Charles was pleased that several of his descendants had chosen to honor his memory by coming to his resting place underneath what was once a large oak tree.

I closed my eyes and my mind wandered back in time to the colony of Virginia. His parents had moved the family to this area in 1774 when Charles was fifteen years old. Six years later he volunteered in a company of Virginia Militia, commanded by Captain Cartmill, in Botetourt County, for a period of three months. They marched in North Carolina and joined a regiment of reflemen. They met the British line and had encounters at Alamanee Creek and Ready River. He was discharged, after three months, while still in North Carolina near Guilford Courthouse in Guilford COunty[9].

Two months later, he joined a company of Virginia Militia in Bedford County. They marched to New London to guard the magazine and removed it into the woods. He was discharged after serving three months.

Less than one month later, he entered the military in Botetourt County as a substitute for William Franklin. Private Russell marched to join the main army, under the command of Colonel Samuel Vance, who was under the command of General George Washington, at the seige of Little York. This regiment marched British prisoners two hundred miles to Winchester Barracks. He was discharged at the end of three months'[10]. He didn't think about being part of history; he just had pride in the thirteen colonies that were established on this soil and wanted to help make these colonies united and free from England's King George's rule. He was awarded a pension for his time in the service at the rate of thirty dollars per year. This commenced in March 1831'[11].

After his service, he decided it was time to think about his future. At the age of thirty two he married Mary Elizabeth Noland on May 4, 1791, in Berkeley County, Virginia'[12]. The ceremony was performed by David Young, a Lutheran minister.

The couple lived in Botetourt County and Bath County, Virginia, before relocating to Gallia County, Ohio in 1803. Their completed family consisted of one daughter and eight sons'[13]. One of the sons, Samuel B., was my great great great grandfather who married Frances Lawless in March 1826'[14].

Samuel followed in his family's trade of carpentry and blacksmithing. These trades continued through the family line with Samuel's son Sylvester Russell and Sylvester's son Bert Russell pursuing the blacksmith trade[15]. This family's attitude of friendship and helpfulness was that it was never too cold, too hot or too wet for them to help others[16].

A melodious tune brought me back to the cemetery. A musician was playing the song, Chester, on the piccolo. This song was the unofficial anthem of the colonies during the time of the American Revolution. As the music floated through the air, I looked across the grass to the rolling hills of southern Ohio. Cows were grazing and butterflies played eenie-meenie-miney-mo as they fluttered among the flowers. It is no wonder that Charles had chosen this peaceful area to live out his remaining years. This is exactly the type of peace he had sought and fought for, peace from British rule and peace among the colonies which had become states to make up part of the United States of America. Charles and his brother, Moses, came to this region to raise their families. Moses settled about twelve miles from Charles in Salem Township. Charles chose to settle in Springfield Township[17]. As he cleared the land and bought and sold vast amounts of land between Gallipolis and Wilksville, he had a vision of a small village nestled among the pines. He spoke to Joseph Fletcher, a surveyor, who agreed to survey a portion of land, ten miles from Gallipolis, for a possible settlement. Charles called this village Pinegrove. He laid out building lots and sold each lot for sixteen cents[18]. He used his carpentry skills to build the first house in Pinegrove for Barlow Morehouse[19]. A few years later many houses in the area stood as a credit to his handiwork. This village later became a rather self sufficient community with many small industries and a center of trade activity. Slaves were smuggled through the maze of the Underground Railroad and the men from Morgan's Raiders passed through this village during the Civil War days[20].

I thought of his kindness and compassion for others. When his daughter died shortly after childbirth, Charles and his wife took their granddaughter, Mary Elizabeth, into their home to raise as their own. This child was very special to him as was evident in the number of items left to her in his will. A short time later, a friend's child was taken into their home and was raised as part of the family until becoming an adult[21].

Charles' wife died in October 1836 while visiting with her sister who was the wife of his brother Moses[22].

In his eightieth year, Charles answered the call of his Heavenly Father and entered into a well earned eternal rest[23].

I looked up at thw wispy, cotton-like clouds, drifting in the azure blue sky, and thought of the legacy this man had left for all of us. The Golden Rule "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you" was part of his daily living.

I turned away from the group and forcused on the star of the flag holder. I thought about the flag with thirteen stars under which the Revolutionary War soldiers fought. One of the stars represented New Jersey, the place of his birth and one represented Virginia, the place he decided to serve his country. Little did he, or other patriots, realize that those few stars would someday increase to fifty. This flag was used again when America faced Britain in the War of 1812, as well as other enemies as time went by. These immigrants knew that their cause was just and right. Through it all, they endured.

As taps echoed over the hills at the conclusion of the ceremony, I silently saluted Charles and the flag that was now flying above his grave. Pride swelled within me as I remembered that this flag stood for freedom and I, as an American, am free. This was an honorable tribute to Charles. I said a short prayer of thanks for his life and for letting me be part of this great family.

GRANDMA T. AND ME

by Lora B. West, age 11, 4670 SR 321, Hillsboro OH 45133
Junior Division Winner

Her name was L. Nora Sherwood Trichler. My name is Lora Bethany West. I was born April 3, 1979, exactly 100 years after my great-great grandmother. Although a century passed between our births, Grandma and I share several characteristics. That's why I'm writing this story to tell you about Grandma T. and me.

Grandma Trichler (we called her Grandma T., because Trichler was too hard for little children to pronounce) was born at home on December 1, 1879. Home was a small farm near Blooming Grove, Indiana. Her father was John Sherwood and her mother was Amanda Gary Sherwood. She had one older brother, Omer Clarence.

When Grandma was almost three she was climbing over a stile and fell, injuring her ankle. At that time doctors were only called for in life or death situations. Grandma's ankle was never treated properly. Later, her father took her to the doctor. The doctor wanted to amputate the foot. Grandpa Sherwood refused. Instead they used a black salve, that looked and smelled like tar, on the infected ankle. Slowly her ankle improved, but Grandma T. was crippled. She walked with a limp the rest of her life.

Grandma T. never attended a public school. She was a girl and a cripple. It was thought at that time it was a waste to educate females because their place was to "keep house" and rear children. Girls rarely received an education and certainly there was no need to educate a crippled girl. She stayed at home and helped her mother care for her ten other brothers and sisters including Omer Clarence, Josie, Ada, Carrie, William, Hazel, James, Gladys, Mahalia and Everett.

Grandma's father used to "farm her out" to clean peoples houses for money. She began cleaning the home of John Trichler. She took a liking to Mrs. Trichler and also her son Elmer. They were married January 1, 1900. They began their married life in Blooming Grove, Indiana.

Grandma and Grandpa Trichler had one child Naomi Gail, born September 16, 1900.

Grandma T. raised Gail to be a proper little lady. If they were going out to visit or to church, Grandma T. would dress little Gail first and stand her on a chair while she got ready. Gail wore ruffled dresses that were hard to iron. She as not allowed to sit down for fear of getting "mussed up."

As Gail grew up, she had to study hard. Grandma T. wanted her only child to be well educated even though she was only a girl.

When Grandma Snider was a little girl they traveled in a buggy pulled by a horse. Every Saturday she and Grandma T. would walk to town and take a whole dollar. They would buy a chicken for Sunday dinner for .25, and a loaf of bread for .05. After buying all the necessities they needed they always saved .10 to go to a movie ("still movie"), before Grandpa Trichler picked them up after work in the buggy.

The Trichler family moved to Dayton. Gail attended Miami University in Oxford. During this time Grandpa Trichler was the manager of the new Kroger store in Dayton at the corner of Wayne and Wyoming. He worked there for several years. He and Grandma T. decided to buy their own store. A year later the depression began and they lost their store. After this Grandma never trusted banks. She kept all her money in her purse and never let her purse out of her sight. Grandpa then worked as a custodian at Wilbur Wright High School. He also took any "odd jobs" he could to support his family.

Gail was obedient to her parents. Only once did she go against her parents' wishes. She married Charles William Snider. Charles, called Chick, served in the Air Force in the Balloon Corps during World War I. Gail and Chick gave Grandma T. five grandchildren: Bob, Tom, John, Gail and Ann.

Grandma and Grandpa loved being grandparents. Gail and Chick lived in Middleport, Ohio, but visited as often as they could. During the flood of 1937, the Snider's home was flooded. Gail Elizabeth stayed with Grandma T. for six months.

Grandpa Trichler died one month before World War II ended. Grandma T. had no income, so she ran a rooming house for men in Dayton after Grandpa's death.

Later on Grandma Trichler went to live with her daughter and son-in-law in Chillicothe. Then, they moved to Waverly where Chick continued to work with the electric company and Gail worked in a department store. Grandma T. helped out with the housework and cooking. She now practiced the skills she had learned earlier at home. She loved to bake biscuits. She also liked to quilt and made each of her grandchildren and her nineteen great grandchildren a quilt.

Grandma T.'s youngest granddaughter married Ronald Palmer. Ronald and Ann lived on a farm and when they went to visit they always took fresh produce. Grandma loved "putting up" relish, fruits and vegetables. The Palmers' six children enjoyed eating Grandma Trichler's homemade apple butter.

When Grandma Trichler was 87, she fell and broke both hips and her arm. The doctor told her she wouldn't walk again. But the doctor didn't understand how determined my great great grandmother was. Grandma did walk again.

Sadly, after this, Chick Snider died of a stroke. Grandma T. & Grandma Snider moved to Belfast, Ohio to be close to Ann. Grandma T. continued making quilts and helping with the canning and freezing "food for winter days."

In August 1977, Ann and Ronald's youngest daughter Nancy married Roger West. Grandma T. attended the wedding at the Belfast church. She gave them a beautiful handmade quilt for a wedding gift.

On April 3, 1979, Roger and Nancy had their first child (me) Lora Bethany West. I spent my first Easter being held by my great great grandmother Trichler. My great grandmother Snider laughed when she saw Lora and Nora rocking.

In December 1979, Grandma Trichler celebrated her 100th birthday. Of her forty-five descendants, only three were unable to be present at the celebration.

My great great Grandmother T. lived through the depression and two World Wars. She was born before television and penicillin. She saw the first man walk on the moon and the discovery of a vaccine for polio. When Grandma was born Thomas Edison had just invented the electric light and Therford B. Hayes was President. My Grandma T. lived through some difficult times but instead of giving up because of obstacles she faced, she became stronger. She never traveled far. She didn't have much education and was never famous, but she was a special lady. She was a determined lady, she would fight for what she felt was right. She was a "women's libber" before anyone ever heard that term.

When people tell me I'm like Grandma T., it makes me proud! Mom told me that she visited Grandma Trichler in the nursing home, many times Grandma T. would come down the hall with her purse under her arm. My Grandmother Trichler died when I was four, at the age of 104. She outlived her daughter and her youngest granddaughter. My mom says I'll get the quilt Grandma made for her. It will be special because it was made by Grandma T.

Thanks for letting me tell you about Grandma T. and me.

1934 FORD CAR

by Sherri Acord, 497 Whetstone Rd., Bainbridge OH 45612
age 17, Senior Division, Art Contest Winner

As I stood beside my first car, a 1985 Buick Somerset, I was filled with pride. I was reminded of pictures of my great-great grandfather and his 1934 Ford car. I remember looking through the family photo albums and seeing my great-great-grandfather standing by his car. I can imagine how he felt and how proud he was to own such a vehicle.

My great-great grandfather drove the '34 Ford around his farm in Ross County and used it to go back and forth to a sawmill he owned. My grandfather, Robert Acord, lived with his grandfather and helped him around the farm. When my great-great grandfather passed away, the '34 Ford was given to my grandfather, and it was from him that I heard about the vehicle. Though I never actually saw the car, I heard many stories about it from my grandfather as we worked together on family cars--mine and others.

I want to be sure to add my picture with my '85 Buick to the family album so that future generations can continue to trace transportation in the Acord family.

A BETTER BUY THAN BEATRICE

by Leo H. Garman, C.G., 449 Parkview Ave., Elmhurst IL 60126

Editor's note: the following article is not meant to be an endorsement of the services described, but it is provided for our readers' information. Neither the writer nor THE REPORT has any financial interest in these services.

We continue to read about "Beatrice Bayley-type promotions" by Family Book Offer, Mary Whitney, Halbert's et al. During the past couple of years I have heard from a number of very sensible people who have deliberately sent in their money in response to one of these scams - knowing that it was a scam - just to get the list of names and addresses, which at first blush doesn't sound like a really bad idea.

The reader will recall that the bogus modus operandi includes a direct mail solicitation letter addressed to, say, Joe Reader of Canal Root, Ohio. The letter offers Joe his own bound and embossed "Family History Book" which purportedly includes the names and addresses of almost all the heads of families in the United States named Reader and gives a lot of family history information. What Joe gets, after he sends in the $29.95, is an attractively bound "book," embossed with the name Reader, and consisting essentially of two parts. The first part is a few pages of general information on genealogical research and the preparation of a family history (in no way particular to the Reader family). The second part is a copy of a computer listing of, say, 800 (the number varies with the name, of course) names and addresses of heads of household named Reader, which, for some reason, are listed in a somewhat jumbled sequence.

This article is not written for the purpose of saving the gullible (who won't read it anyway), but rather it is directed at those serious family genealogy researchers who are attempting to locate people in the United States with a particular surname. For anyone with a personal computer and access to CompuServ (or for anyone who has a friend who does), there is an alternative which is probably better than the bogus mail order routine.

Under the code word Phone*File they offer a data base of over 80 million names of heads of household in the U.S. Each entry shows name, home address, phone number, length of residence, and in about 40% of the cases, spouse's given name. CompuServ says that the data is "up-to-date," and comes from telephone directories, published birth announcements, real estate transactions, and information that is made available by public agencies. Length of residence information is derived by determining the number of years a household record remains unchanged. There is a surcharge of .25 per minute for the time of connection to Phone*File (which is not charged for instruction "digestion" time), but this is in addition to the regular .20 per minute CompuServ connection charge, so the total charge during the loading of data is .45 per minute. The service is offered only on a state by state basis.

The advantages to using the Phone*File alternative would seem to be:

1. The information is up-to-date, whereas the mail order lists appear to be several years old.

2. More data accompanies each name. In addition to name and address there are phone numbers, length of residence, and in many cases, spouse's given name.

3. The list can be obtained for any surname desired, when desired, whereas the mail order list is only for the surname offered at the time of the offer (and one must bear that surname in order to receive the offer).

4. It is probably less expensive, but in some circumstances this might not be true. A file was assembled on behalf of the writer for a particular name from 21 states, using a 2,400 baud Modem. The total was 279 listings (of which 105 showed spouse's given name). The surcharged time was 38 minutes (x .45 = $17.10). I do not believe the remaining 29 states contain very many of the surname selected, so they could probably be loaded in considerably less time (however, there is a fixed time element involved in making contact for each state, regardless of the number of listings).

Disadvantages may be:

1. The data must be loaded state by state. There is no way to load the United States for one name, all at once. (In some circumstances this might be an advantage, rather than a disadvantage.) Of course, as was pointed out earlier, the mail order data, although for the entire country, seems to come in a jumbled order.

2. It is possible that in some circumstances the cost could exceed $29.95.

SOCIAL SECURITY DEATH INDEX

Another modern-day service has recently become available by virtue of the Social Security Death Index, which lists 39.5 million deceased people who had social security numbers and whose deaths occurred from 1962 to the present.

A report on a particular surname may be purchashed by contacting:

Cambridge Statistical Research Associates Inc., 760 Wheeling Ave., Cambridge OH 43725.

Simply write to them, including an SASE, asking for a quotation for the surname, and you will be informed how many records are found in the database for that name, and what the total cost will be. Once ordered, the report will contain the names, in alphabetical order, the Social Security number, state in which issued, date of birth, month and year of death, and zip code where the final payment was sent. A list of pertinent zip codes is also sent with each report. [The Editor used this service, at a cost of $15.00, receiving 480 names and records.]

Once this report has been obtained, you may then obtain death certificates or obituaries for persons on the list. You may also contact the Social Security Administration, 6401 Security Blvd., Baltimore MD 21235, for copies of original application papers which generally give pertinent data on the individual, including data and place of birth and names of parents. The cost for this service is $7.00, and you must supply the Social Security number as well as name and death date. When you do not know the SS number, you must supply the name, dates of birth & death and places, and names of parents, along with payment of $16.50.

The Family History Libraries (LDS) which offer a compact disc program (CD Rom) also have the Social Security Death Index. According to press releases regarding their service, you must search first by name, and then obtain the birth & death data from a supplementary data base.

CLARK FAMILY HISTORY

By Charlene Sponseller Dixson, 1250 S. Sawburg Ave., No. 8, Alliance, Ohio

On August third, 1782, Robert Clark of Oley Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, married at Wolmesdorf, Berks County, Susannah Kauffman, daughter of Hannah (Hill/Hiel) and Jacob Kauffman, of Oley Township. Susannah's roots went back to her grandfather David, who bought his third tract of Pennsylvania land on February 23, 1740. Susannah's father, Jacob Kauffman, had demonstrated his loyalty to the American Revolutionary cause by selling General George Washington beef and cotton, and by permitting an encampment of Washington's soldiers in his orchard, north of his homestead. He served in the First Battalion, Fourth Company, from Oley Township, Berks County, under Colonel Daniel Hunter.

In 1783, Robert and Susannah's first child, Jacob K. Clark, was born, probably in Oley Township. In 1784, Robert Clark, weaver, living on 40 acres, had one head of cattle, lived in Earl Township Berks County, and had three persons in his household. In 1785, the small family was assessed taxes in Oley Township, living there until 1786, then from 1788 to 1793, in Amity Township. By 1790, the family had grown to include two more sons, neither of whom survived to manhood; son John K. Clark was born in Amity Township in 1791 and son Peter in 1793, approximate. Tax lists show that by 1800, Robert Clark had returned his family to Oley Township and they lived there until 1806. Anecdotal family history is that Robert Clark was English, came to America as a part of General Cornwallis' army and lingered after the Brits had lost the Revolutionary War, to marry a girl of "Pennsylvania Dutch" origins.

When Susannah's father Jacob Kauffman died, he left his estate to be divided in equal shares among his eight children, his will being probated from Oley Township, Berks County, November 19th, 1804. Hannah Kauffman, Susannah's mother, survived him.

One year later, on November 30th, 1805, Robert Clark of Oley Township, purchased 125 acres of patented land in (Upper) Mahantongo Township, Berks (now Schuylkill) County, Pennsylvania, from William Whitman, Jr., and his wife Mary, of the Borough of Reading, which land was situated on Mahantongo Creek. It may be assumed that Robert Clark then removed his growing family to this somewhat undeveloped land in the Spring of 1807, since he was listed on the Oley Township tax list of that year, but his name was crossed off.

Robert and Susannah had at least four more children: Abraham K.; Daniel K; Samuel; and Hannah, the latter named for Susannah's mother. Robert Clark, who had variously been listed as a weaver, laborer and farmer, plus combinations of those three occupations, on the tax lists, must have found need to be all three, with a family of seven children. In September, 1813, Robert died, in Upper Mahantongo Township, Schuylkill County, leaving Susannah a widow. On October 23, the same year, Susannah relinquished her widow's administration rights of the estate by means of a letter to the court, stating, "I leave it to my sons Jacob and John Clark to administer", making her mark to "sign" the document.

Jacob and John received an administration bond on the 25th of October, 1813, both sons signing in easily-read English handwriting. An inventory of the household's entire holdings was taken the 8th of November, 1813, showing a well equipped and well stocked family situation, certainly not overly wealthy, but definitely not poor by any means. In un-dated Schuylkill County Orphans Court records, petitions to appoint guardians for minor children "above the age of fourteen years", were filed in the names of Daniel, Samuel and Hannah Clark, sons and daughter of Robert Clark late of the Township of Mahantongo, with George Klinger being named as the children's guardian.

It appears that Susannah Clark continued to live on her property without pressure from the courts until her death, sometime before January 2nd, 1815, when her mother Hannah Kauffman, wrote her will in Oley Township: "To each of my daughter Susanna (sic) Clark's children, viz, Jacob, Peter, John, Abraham, Daniel, Samuel and Hannah...". A petition to award inquest to make partition of the land was filed March 27th, 1815, by Jacob and John, mentioning the month and year of their father's demise and naming all seven of Robert and Susannah's children, with Daniel, Samuel and Hannah, still being "in their minority", petition signed by John Clark.

Upon examination of the land by an impartial panel of men who are presumed to have been neighbors, the land was declared to be un-dividable without prejudice to some of the heirs, and the entire property was ordered to be sold. Peter Clark, "tin pedler", of the same place, bought it at auction for "one thousand and seventy five pounds lawful money of Pennsylvania, he being the highest bidder...", deed dated March 27th, 1815.

Peter Clark, "merchant, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania", then sold the 125 acre homestead back to the same William Whitman from whom Robert had originally bought it, and the selling price was the same amount Peter had paid for it. No proof exists at this point in time that the Peter Clark who was first a tin peddler, then a Philadelphia merchant, was the son of Robert Clark, but it is assumed that he was. Whitman repurchased the property the 15th of April, 1816.

Robert Clark's oldest child, Jacob K. Clark, born Oley Township, Berks County, Pennsylvania, February 10th, 1783, married about 1806, probably in Northumberland County, Susanna, daughter of Susanna (Bruch) and Jacob Bauman/Bowman. The Jacob Clarks do not appear in the Pennsylvania census of 1810, and may have been missed. Their first child, Catharine, was born December 4th, 1807, and daughter Jeste (Christina), followed on April 13th, 1811, their birthplaces unknown except for the probability of Berks or Northumberland for Catharine, and Schuylkill or Northumberland Counties for Jeste.

On October 28th, 1816, with certificate number 6523, John K. Clark of Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, and Daniel K. Clark of Berks County, bought land in Osnaburg Township, Stark County, Ohio. On August 30th, 1817, Jacob K. Clark and his brother-in-law, Samuel Bowman, bought land in Osnaburg Township, together, their residences shown as "Stark County, Ohio", certificate number 6843. The two brothers-in-law, Jacob K. Clark and Samuel Bowman, removed to Stark County to settle this land when Jacob's son Abraham, born November first, 1814, in Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania, was two years old, in the Spring of 1817, sharing the property until its partition January 24th, 1824. A caravan of five families migrated westward from the Berks/Northumberland/Schuylkill Counties area, going across the mountains in wagons pulled by teams, with the journey taking five weeks. The Clark family had added Henry, born June 11th, 1816, in Schuylkill County, to their family, and for the Clarks, the trip may have been more than a little unpleasant with three children under the age of seven, and one child under age ten.

CLARK FAMILY HISTORY

Apparently they all flourished in the raw new country that was Stark County, Ohio for the next five children, all girls, were born at two year intervals, and the last child, a son, was born three years following his sister Eliza's birth.

Jacob K. Clark died the 29th of April, 1863, at Osnaburg Township, Stark County, and is buried in Paris Cemetery, Paris Township, Stark County. Susanna, his wife, born about 1786, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania, died sometime after signing a Stark County deed on April 1st, 1865. Their children were:

Abraham's mother and Catharine (Rettinger) Clark's mother, were sisters, daughters of Jacob Bauman/Bowman of Northumberland County, Pennsylvania. Catharine Rettinger was born at Schuylkill Co., PA, the 15th of October, 1814.

Of the seven surviving children of Susannah and Robert Clark, just a bit more is known. Son John K. Clark remained in Pennsylvania and married Anna Maria Bauman/ Bowman, sister of his brother Jacob K. Clark's wife. John was born August 31st, 1791, and died in Northumberland County, PA, June 1st, 1855. He and his wife are buried in David's Cemetery, Hebe, Pennsylvania.

Son Peter, as we surmise, became a merchant in Philadelphia, PA. Son Daniel K. Clark who had bought Osnaburg Township, Stark County, Ohio, land with his brother John, was living in Paris Township, same county, by the census of 1830. He may be the Daniel Clark whose estate was probated in Stark County, in 1840.

Son Abraham K. Clark, warranted 100 acres in Norwegian Township, Schuylkill Co., PA, on January 14th, 1830, but there is no record of the warrant being returned for patent, and in the census taken that year, he lived in Bethel Township, Berks County. In 1837, administration papers were filed in Berks County, for the estate of Abraham K. Clark. In January, 1840, his estate sold some Pine Grove Township, Schuylkill County, PA, land he had owned.

Freight train 65, on the big four road, ran into three loaded flat cars at Edgemont near Cincinnati. The engine was hurled from its tracks and the tender thrown down a 40 foot embankment. On the front of the first car in the train three tramps from Columbus, O., were riding. They were thrown into the midst of the wreckage and boiled to death by escaping steam. While the wrecking crew was at work prying a car off the track a tie flew up and struck William HOBUSCH in the pit of the stomach. He cannot live. The dead are: Joseph JORDON, chainmaker, Columbus, O.; James MURPHY, foundryman, Columbus, O.; Joseph BLANCH, Columbus, O. Injured; Frank BROFFERMAN, Van Wert, O., both legs broken; William HOBUSCH, section hand, internal injuries; H. HUGHES, of Edgemont, legs broken. The switch engine crew are blamed for the wreck. They ran the three cars upon the main track which at that time should have been cleared for the freight train.

Many of our readers acquainted with Prof. S.G. SMITH and his estimable wife will regret to learn of the death of their eldest daughter. We clip the following notice of the sad event from the University "Herald," of Ada, Ohio where Prof. SMITH has been engaged in teaching music for the past two or three years: Little Genevieve SMITH is dead. Like a tender plant which could not endure the chilling blasts of winter, has the Omnipotent taken her to that better land. Gentle, loving and seemingly without a fault, her mission on earth was to direct us upward to the source of all perfection. Mrs. Prof. SMITH and family had been spending a few weeks' vacation at the home of their grandparents near Oil City, Pa., when on the 26th of August Genevive was taken sick, the physician in attendance pronouncing it inflammation of the bowels. Several days passed without unfavorable symptoms and on Thursday, the 31st, she asked to be allowed to get up, but it was thought best to wait awhile longer. In a short time she grew worse, and Prof. SMITH was summoned. At noon Friday she expired, conscious to the last moment. The dreadful news was borne to her father while yet on the train and the shock completely unmanned him. This was the day which beforehand he had set apart to bring the family home from their visit. Genevieve was 8 years, 2 months and 17 days old and was particularly gifted. The house and room in which she died is where she was born. The funeral which was held in the Reformed church in Salem in the afternoon drew a vast concourse of sympathizing friends from those sections where Prof. SMITH was known.

Three persons named STERNBLOTH, from Hampden, O., father aged 60, daughter 21 and son 16, lost their lives in the Raisor Hotel, Chicago, through their ignorance of gas and gas fixtures. They were found dead, having been asphyxiated by gas escaping from an open jet.

On the northern boundary of Findlay, Oh., at the crossing of the Toledo and Ohio railroad there was a fearful accident Saturday evening. Six persons were caught in a heavy wagon by a fast running train. Mangled bodies of the men, women and horses, mixed with the wreckage from the wagon, were strung along the track on both sides. Daniel RODECKER and his wife and Mrs. William HERSHEY were frightfully mutilated and killed outright. A young daughter of Mrs. HERSHEY was mortally wounded. John SULLIVAN will die from his injuries and but one of the party of six will survive. The only explanation of the tragedy is that the wagon was so heavy and carried such a load the horses were unable to handle it as quickly as the driver thought when he tried the crossing.

A hydraulic plunge on a converter at the Middleport, O., steel plant, broke, precipitating white hot metal among sixty workmen from a distance of fifteen feet. Ten were burned fatally. Those who will surely die are: Jack HAYDEN, Orlando GRADY, William COZENS, Stephen WEEKS. Those who are expected to recover are: George PHILIPS, Arthur WINEGAR, Edward BURNEY, Frank BARRETT, George STEELE and Jesse WILSON. The hot metal scattered for fifty feet in all directions. The clothes were burned from all within reach. All the fatally injured are single men, except COZENS, who has a large family.

Thursday, May 24, 1894 - Volume XXX, Number 41

A cyclone passed one-fourth mile west of Kunkle, O., killing four persons, fatally injuring two others and slightly wounding several more. The dead are: Daniel BARRETT, Mrs. Daniel BARRETT, Martha DASE, George OXINGER. Injured: Marta DASE, slightly injured; Charles COLE, fatally hurt internally; Mrs. Charles COLE, head crushed, will die; Jennie CREEK, head crushed, will recover. The scene of the cyclone is a hard one to describe. Houses, fences, trees and obstructions of all kinds in the path of the storm have been carried away, and nothing left to mark the spot where they stood except huge holes in the ground. The building in which were Daniel BARRETT, his wife and their two granddaughters, Marta and Martha DASE, is so completely demolished that not even a portion of the foundation is left.

A short time ago William GABLE, a young man was working near a big rock in the northwestern county of Morgan County, Ohio says the Toledo Blade. He accidently knocked some moss off of it and revealed two or three letters chiseled in the surface. He began to dig at once and removing the remaining moss found a message from Lewis WHETZLE, or WETZEL, as he is known to pioneer history. On the face of the rock is the legend "Enjoy the peace which I have prepared for you," and to the right of this is the inscription cut into the sandstone, "Engraved by me, Lewis WHETZLE, born in Virginia, February 29th, 1752." The discovery of this rock, long buried beneath the wood's moss and leaves, brings to mind once more the wonderful deeds of daring of WHETZLE. While on a scouting expedition WHETZLE, armed only with his knife and tomahawk attacked a camp of four Indians. Three of them he killed, the fourth ran for his life and escaped. WHETZLE was a wonderful man in many respects. Not very tall, only five feet nine inches, he was a man of enormous strength. He was as dark and swarthy as an Indian, and his face was deeply pitted with small-pox. His hair, and this was his special pride, reached, when combed to its full length, to the calves of his legs, and every Muskingum Indian had sworn to have his scalp. His eyes were black and shone with a fierce fire. He feared nothing and was wild or tame as he was either enemy or friend. His name will be forever connected with the history of the border along the Ohio and through West Virginia.

Bruce WHITTLE, Barnesville, O., aged about 32 years, daughter of James WHITTLE, living near Hendrysburg, five miles north of Barnesville, committed suicide in the ladies' parlor at the Albert hotel in Barnesville. The case is a very mysterious one, as no one about the hotel knew when she came there. She lay on the sofa for four hours before anyone knew she was dead. The cause of the deed is unknown. A post mortem examination showed that she had died of carbolic acid poisoning.

John and Charles MOORES, aged 19 and 14 years respectively, in company with another boy and three girls, attempted to cross the Ohio river at Toronto, O., in a leaky skiff and when within a few rods of the West Virginia shore the skiff began to sink. The inmates became panic stricken and jumped out and the two MOORES boys were drowned. The girls held to the skiff until rescued. The river was dragged with nets, grab hooks, etc., and after three hours' work both bodies were recovered.

Thursday, September 6, 1894 - Volume XXXI, Number 5

A battle took place at Ohio City, a little town at the junction of the Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw and the Chicago & Erie railroads, 25 miles from Lima, O., late Tuesday night. Thomas RISSER, the night watchman discovered thieves breaking into Charles COCH'S storeroom. Watchman RISSER tackled the robbers single handed and was shot twice, once in the body and once in the head. The thieves then made an effort to get out of town, but were followed by the citizens. There was a lively exchange of shots on both sides. Several were wounded on both sides. Joseph LEHMAN, a leading business man, was fatally wounded, and attorney Frank LEWIS badly shot. The citizens were finally forced to retire. With their wounded the thieves beat a hasty retreat, going south from Ohio City. It is probable the gang will be overtaken.

While racked with pain, a wealthy retired business man of Cleveland, Edward S. DEAN, shot himself through the heart, Friday.

Morris F. BRENTON, who had been a clerk at the Shrader Hotel, Columbus, O., up to a week ago, committed suicide in Chicago, Wednesday night.

At Dayton, O., Friday was pension day at the soldier's home and the veterans were paid. A few of them visited the dives in the vicinity of the institution Saturday and were robbed. Two of the old soldiers were found robbed and murdered and their bodies lying in the public road and their pockets turned inside out. Their names were Adolphus CURGAN, Company P., CURNELL'S legion, of Maryland and John BARRETT, of the navy. A number of veterans are missing from the home but will turn up all right

Rev. James F. JONES, D.D., pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Butler,(Pa.) died in that place last Thursday morning at 7:15 o'clock. Dr. JONES was well known in Kittanning,(Pa.) having preached here from 1877 until the fall of 1880, when he was removed to fill the pulpit of the M.E. Church in Indiana. He is survived by his wife and seven children: Mrs. Fred'k. ROHRER, Mrs. W.D. PATTON and Floyd C. JONES, Esq., of this place; Rush T. of Pittsburg; Raymond and Clifford H., of Washington, Pa.; and Lewis H., of Butler. Dr. JONES was born in Sewellsville, O., Sept. 2, 1836. He attended the district schools of that day and afterward Barnesville (O.) Academy. At the age of 14 he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. The ambition of his boyhood was to become a minister of the gospel. The Rev. Dr. John W. BAKER, pioneer of Methodism in Western Penna. and Eastern Ohio gave Dr. JONES license to preach when he was but twenty-three years of age. In 1859 he entered the Pittsburg conference. Dr. JONES' first appointment was Bearsville circuit in what was then called "Dark Monroe" county in Ohio. It was at that time inhabited by rough people. Several Methodist circuit riders had been driven away for the charge and violence done to others, but Dr. JONES successfully filled his appointments on the circuit. On April 24, 1864, he married Mrs. Fanny M. HAFT. She died Jan. 8, 1884 and his four year old daughter, Alice A., died the 11th day of the same month. Walter L., his sixth and youngest son, was drowned June 22, 1891, near Washington, Pa. In February of 1886, Dr. JONES married Miss Jennie M. BLEAKNEY, who for several years was a resident of Kittanning and a teacher in the public schools. During the war he was a member of the Christian Commission and spent some time at the front where he cared for and nursed wounded and sick soldiers. The funeral took place on Saturday last, the remains being conveyed by special car to Washington, Pa.

Thursday, November 8, 1894 - Volume XXXI, Number 13

George and Nellie GOOD, aged 9 and 6 years respectively, children of Samuel GOOD who lives about three miles north of Paulding, Ohio were found Monday morning in the woods near the house with their throats cut from ear to ear, their bodies terribly lacerated and blackened from a fire started with the supposed object of removing all trace of the crime. Sunday afternoon the GOOD children were playing and wandering into a nearby wood, they failed to return at supper time, and a searching party was organized. The belief is that the little girl was assaulted and then murdered and her brother killed to prevent telling the awful tale. Sheriff STALEY arrested Charles HART, aged 19 years, who resides near the GOOD home, on suspicion. HART is illiterate and by some considered insane. Loe CAIN, a negro, 21 years who has been a companion of HART, was also arrested. Paulding was filled with men talking wildly of lynching the arrested persons. Judge SNOOK and leading citizens made an effort to quiet the mob by making speeches to them on the street. The prisoners were quietly sent to Van Wert for safe keeping.

Thursday, November 29, 1894 - Volume XXXI, Number 17

At New Lisbon, O., Alma WALTERS, of Pittsburg, appeared as a witness in the case of McGREGOR, charged with the murder of Lizzie EWING at Wellsville. She testified that she was living at Wellsville in 1893, and that she saw the body of Lizzie EWING lying on the rear porch of McGREGOR'S house. The woman was dead, and she saw McGREGOR and MORRISON wrap the body in an oil cloth and bury it in a grave in the backyard, which she had previously seen them prepare. She also testified that she saw blood spots on a shirt worn by McGREGOR on the night of the murder, blood spots on the carpet and two towels saturated with blood. The efforts of the defence were directed toward showing that the woman died suddenly from alcoholism, and that the blood on the shirt, carpet and the towels was the result of nasal hemorrhage on the part of Mrs. EWING. She stated that after the woman had been buried McGREGOR compelled her on bended knees to take oath that she would never reveal what she knew about the woman. Mrs. William HURST testified that on the morning of June 22, 1893, she saw from her house, which was about 50 yards from the McGREGOR house, the prisoner and Harvey MORRISON carrying what appeared to be a body wrapped in a sheet, or some kind of a large cloth, into a chicken coop on McGREGOR'S premises. Policeman WARREN testified to the finding of the body of Mrs. EWING buried in the chicken coop. The other testimony was of a character tending to show that McGREGOR had threatened the woman.

The home of Rev. Solomon BECKERMAN of 1131 Case avenue, Cleveland, caught fire at 1 o'clock Monday morning. Two little daughters, aged 7 and 11 years were burned to death. The other members of the family had great difficulty in escaping.

A band of robbers and highwaymen in the western part of Columbiana county, Ohio, has been broken up by the arrest of C.Z. COURTNEY, who confesses to being implicated in several big jobs, and names the other members of the gang. This is the gang that has been terrorizing the people in this section for several months past. Other members of the gang since arrested are Wallace NEWSANDER, Alpheus JENNINGS and Adam GRAHAM., John HENRY, the leader is still at large, but his capture is certain. They have committed robberies amounting to thousands of dollars and always escaped with their booty.

The jury in the case of George E. ST. JOHN, a prominent real estate dealer, of Port Clinton, O., charged with frauds in dealing in canceled mortgages, brought in a verdict of guilty. ST. JOHN was at once taken into custody and placed in jail. A half hour later he shot himself through the head, dying instantly. ST.JOHN suffered heavy financial losses through the recent failure of POST, WICKHAM & HOWELL, the big Lake Erie fish triumvirate.

Four persons met their death Friday through the burning of the Deaconesses Hospital at Cleveland. The victims are Albert ALLYMEYER, Minnie BAUMER, Walter CLARK, 8 month old baby and Jacob KRAUSE. The fire started in the basement, presumably from the furnace, and before it could be extinguished the building was almost destroyed. The building was wooden structure three stories high. By the time persons located on the top floors discovered their perilous situation it was too late to descend by the stairs, and those on that floor gave up their lives. Before the fire department had arrived and before the flames had reached the outside of the building, Minnie BAUMER, one of the nurses, appeared at the upstairs window and implored those below to assist her in getting her patient, who was William ALLMEYER, one of the men burned. All saw that it would be folly to attempt to enter the building, which was now burning fiercely. "Jump to the porch and save yourself," they cried to her, as she was but 15 or 16 feet above the broad veranda roof. "I can't leave my patient," was the reply of the brave woman, as she turned to look back into the room, evidently to quiet the fears of ALLMEYER, who thought she was going to leave him. For a moment the brave woman stood looking into the crowd below her, and then duty triumphed over her desire to be saved. The smoke was pouring from the windows about her and her white, startled face appeared as a picture in a frame of darkest ebony. Then she turned into the room and was seen no more until her blackened form was carried tenderly from the building shortly after.

Mrs. Mary TITZELL, nee BUSH, according to the "Times" was intermarried about a month ago with Edward LIBRAND, Esq., a prominent attorney of Delaware Co., Ohio. The round house of the Wabash railroad company in Toledo, O., located at the foot of South street, on the dock front, burned to the ground between 10 and 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Three-quarters of an hour after the first alarm was sent in the southwest wall of the building, 60 feet in circumference, fell in burying 12 men underneath it. Two of them were instantly killed, a third died a short time after being taken out of the debris, and the others were all badly hurt, one probably fatally. All but one, John BOWEN, were employees of the Wabash. The dead are:

R.H. BOHLMAN, aged 56, painter, married, seven children.

J.J. PRESTON, aged 35, car inspector, married, six children; instantly killed.

John BOWEN, aged 18, inspector; killed instantly.

Late at night two more men were found, who were injured by the falling wall. They are J. FINLAY, an engineer of Andrews, Ind., and George TOWERS, machinist, both in the employ of the Wabash. FINLAY is quite seriously hurt. His chest was crushed and he sustained a severe scalp wound. TOWERS has a fracture of the leg, and is more or less bruised.

Thursday, March 28, 1895 - Volume XXXI, Number 33

At Dayton, Ohio, the autopsy upon the body of the little girl, Lilah Meade, who is believed to have died in the hands of so-called Christian science healers, was performed by the coroner, who found that the child died from tubercular meningitis. He states that with proper medical treatment the child might have recovered. T.B. HATTEN and wife, the Christian scientists, who are charged with manslaughter in this case, are out on bail of $1,000 each and are to be arranged in police court.

Thursday, April 4, 1895 - Volume XXXI, Number 34

A westbound freight train was wrecked on the Panhandle about a mile east of Newcomerstown, O., and four young men were seriously, if not fatally injured. John WILSON, aged 25, a barber living at Tuscarawas; Oscar HURZY, aged 19, son of Squire HURZY, postmaster at Booth; Wm. MERCER and Willis BERKSHIRE, both of the latter place, all walked three miles to Uhrichsville to catch a freight train for Newcomerstown. The men stood on a sill of a car about midway of the train. As the train approached the siding to pull in for the limited, the engineer found he was running at a high rate of speed and made an emergency stop. The force broke a car coupling just in front of the one the men were on, and they were allowed to drop almost into the jaws of death. WILSON sent off into the ditch. A crane overturned upon him and had it not been for the excavation he would have been crushed to death. He has injuries which make his recovery hopeless. BERKSHIRE was pinned to the rail on the other side, and on trying to pull his legs loose, found them both off below the knees. HURZY'S right arm was broken in two places. BERKSHIRE took his coat off, wrapped it about his severed limbs and lay down to await surgical aid or die. He cannot recover. MERCER had a shoulder badly crushed and has internal injuries, the severity of which cannot be told yet.

The Pittsburg steamboat Iron Queen, burned to the water's edge Wednesday morning near a small place called Antiquity, Letart county, O., 12 miles above Middleport and about 150 miles below Wheeling. The boat left Cincinnati about 10 o'clock on Monday night, and proceeded to Pittsburg. Everything went alright until Antiquity was reached about 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, when a lamp was overturned in the engine room, which set fire to the woodwork. Before the flames could be extinguished the whole of the magnificent steamer which was above water was destroyed. Mrs. Mattie MALLEY of Cincinnati, the colored chambermaid, was drowned. She went back to the burning portion of the boat to get some clothing. The flames enwrapped the cabin and she attempted to climb down a stationary stanchion on the shore side near the wheel. In doing so she fell into the river and drowned, forty feet from shore. This was the only life lost. The head of the boat lay close to the bank and the passengers got ashore without difficulty.

The following was contained in a letter written to the editors Jno. W. and Fredk. ROHRER by Don --- of Avon Park, Florida on December 10, 1895.

Major Robert CLARK, of Mt. Vernon, Ohio formerly of Allegheny Co, Pa. is stopping with me this winter. The Major has a beautiful ten acre tract of his own and cozy little house, but he prefers to be in town. He has over ten thousand pineapples out and many other of the choicest varieties of fruit planted, many of which will fruit this coming season. Major CLARK is personally acquainted with Guy MECHING and David REYNOLDS of Kittanning, and often asks me of their welfare. They all attended the same school at Sewickly, Allegheny Co. Pa. Major CLARK is at present in Chicago, Ill., he having been called to that place last week by the sudden death of an aunt who wished in her will for him to settle up her estate. He writes me he hugs the furnace to keep from freezing and when here he could go in his shirt sleeves all the time. He expects to be here in January 1896.

Four masked burglars appeared at the farm house of John ZIGLER, at Zoar, Ohio. Mr. ZIGLER, his wife, and hired girl, were in the dining room and Mr. ZEIGLER answered the knock at the door. He was confronted by two of the men who demanded his money. Mr. ZIGLER stepped back to close the door, when one of the burglars pulled his revolver and shot him. The ball struck just below the left temple, ranged down and lodged in his right jaw. The burglars then leaped into the room and over powered Mr. ZIGLER. Mrs. ZIGLER who is a large woman, grappled with one of the burglars and he shot her, the ball taking effect in her abdomen. The hired girl ran into an adjoining room and locked the door but raised the window and cried for help. The burglars then took fright and ran down the road. With the blood streaming down his face Mr. ZIGLER ran across the fields, half a mile distant to get help from his neighbors, Mr. Henry LIRK. Mr. LIRK armed with a revolver and on his way to Mr. ZIGLER'S home met one of the burglars in a field, who demanded him to hold up his hands. But instead of doing this he fired several shots at the burglar, but in the darkness he missed his aim. The burglar made his escape. Mr. ZEIGLER is not dangerously injured, but it is feared his wife will die from the effects of her wounds.

"A letter from Shagrin [Chagrin??] Ohio, mentions the following facts relative to longevity: "There is now living in this place, a Mrs. WOOLSEY, who in 98 years of age. She still retains her physical and mental faculties in the highest degree of perfection. She is able to read and sew without the aid of glasses; and four years since (then 94) she spun the materials for 30 yards of linen cloth. She arrived here a few weeks since from Albany Co., NY, having travelled over 500 miles in a wagon, in the short space of 14 days, being on a visit to four of her children here, one of whom is 83 years old, and was among the first settlers of this region. Mrs. W. has always observed the most strict regimen in her habits, retiring at 9 and rising at 4 o'clock, only devoting 7 hours to sleep." [Delaware Gazette, Delhi NY, 30 Dec 1829]

This comprehensive genealogical dictionary could be an excellent help to any genealogy student. Names of tools, legal terms and Norman and Latin words often stump the student. An appendix lists Dutch names to English, English to Dutch, and nicknames. This is an interesting book to leaf through, and could be a helpful research tool. ("Zax" is a tool used by a slater!) mw COLUMBIANA COUNTY, OHIO MARRIAGES 1800-1870, AND OTHER EVIDENCES OF MARRIAGES .... By Carol Willsey Bell, C.G. Published by Bell Books, 4649 Yarmouth Lane, Youngstown, OH 44512. 1990. 400 pp. Price $35.00 plus $2.50 shipping. Soft bound.

SENTMAN/SANDMAN FAMILY GENEALOGY: TEN YEARS LATER. Compiled by Helen Graham Silvey, 8011 Stutz Court, Sacramento, CA 95828. Price $20.00, plus $2.00 shipping/handling. Soft bound, to be placed in folder with previous book, or into a folder of its own.

Because this is a sequel to a book printed about ten years ago about one Lawrence Sentman, it most certainly should b used with that book. The author has tried to incorporate much material which has come to light since the original work was put on the market. Because the reviewer has no way of scanning that work, she finds it difficult to understand alone. There is much that will be enlightening to a member of the family. The work is very well indexed, both as to Sandman/Sentman, and to all connecting families. There is a listing of all who have served in the armed forces in all American wars. Tax records, wills, census reports, all are in the several appendices. The author has put a great deal of time and study into the work. It should be of great value to someone researching the Sentman/Sandman family. mw

This prolific chapter has put out the 1830 and 1840 census combined. It is arranged alphabetically with the numbers in each age group column marked. The one drawback is that in an alphabetical listing, one cannot determine the other families in the same neighborhood. The 1820 census (names only) is also given, along with the Michigan strip, and unorganized Hancock, Paulding, Putnam, Williams, and Henry Counties. An occasional Frenchmen or Indian may be found. Maps of the county at each census date are included. Steven Charter and Michael Reynolds were the major abstracters of this material. tsn

The Perry Twp. book includes separately indexed transcriptions of West Millgrove, Perry, and Mennonite Cemeteries. Wood Counties excellent "Sponsor a Cemetery Program" is explained in both books.

The separate indexes are easy to miss, but perhaps the chapter will publish an overall county index for the several township cemetery books when finished. tsn

MONROE COUNTY, OHIO CEMETERY INSCRIPTIONS: OHIO AND LEE TOWNSHIPS. Copied and compiled by Opal Smith and Karen Romick. Published by the Monroe Co. Chapter OGS, P.O. Box 641, Woodsfield, OH 43793. 1989. (5) leaves, 132 pp. Illus. Index. Softbound. $11.00 plus $1.00 postage.

Many of the early settlers of Lee and Ohio Townships were Swiss and German. They established farms in these adjacent townships which border on the Ohio River in a lovely hilly area of the state. This book contains all known cemeteries along with maps and photographs of several. Many of the cemeteries were read in the early 1980's and were rechecked before publication. Each chapter begins with a brief history of the cemetery. lm

MONROE COUNTY, OHIO NEWSPAPER ABSTRACTS. Compiled by Rita Kopp. Published by the Monroe Co. Chapter OGS, P.O. Box 641, Woodsfield, OH 43793. 1990. 73 pp. Indexed. Softbound. $8.00 plus $1.00 postage.

The abstracts in this book were taken from various issues of the Monroe Gazette and the Spirit of Democracy dating from 1897 through 1910. Although they are brief notices of deaths, they often contain an incredible amount of information such as European birthplace, previous residence in another state, marriage date, deaths of infants who may not be known to a family researcher. This helpful book has a surname index. lm

LEWISVILLE, LAINGS AND MALAGA: THREE MORE COMMUNITIES OF MONROE COUNTY, OHIO. 1890. Compiled and indexed by Carolyn Zogg Wolf for the Monroe Co. Historical Society, P.O. Box 538, Woodsfield, OH 43793. 1989. (1), 15 leaves. Softbound. $5.00 plus $1.25 postage.

In the 1880's and 1890's, a roving reporter for the Monroe Gazette recorded his impressions of several of the county communities and their residents. The articles about the three communities in this book appeared in the issues of September 1890. This book supplements a similar 1984 publication by the Society. It provides a charming eyewitness account of everyday life in a small town. A useful index to persons mentioned in the articles is included. lm

OBITUARIES OF MONROE COUNTY, OHIO. Compiled by Kathy Schafer Romick. Published by the Monroe Co. Chapter OGS, P.O. Box 641, Woodsfield, OH 43793. 1990. 96 pp. plus 18 pp. index. Softbound. $11.00 plus $1.00 postage.

The 200 obituaries in this book cover the period 1900-1960. They were taken from the collection of Opal Smith, and from the personal papers of Ella Kernan, Elizabeth Romick and Anna Hayes. In addition to information on the extended families of the deceased, the obituaries include personal details which cannot be found in basic civil records of births, deaths and marriages. They mention vocations, avocations, and military service, as well as personality traits which many of us would like to know about our own ancestors. This book is especially useful for those with Ohio and Lee Township connections. An all-name index is included. lm

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA LIBRARY SURVEY OF BOOKS ON OHIO. Compiled by Patricia Morrison. 1990. (3), 73 leaves. Softbound. Send request to: Survey Book, Southern California Chapter OGS, P.O. Box 5057, Los Alamitos, CA 90721-5057. $10.50 plus $2.00 shipping and handling.

OGS members in the Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego areas helped to research at various libraries to prepare this book. Ohio-related materials in twenty libraries are listed by Ohio county and also by subject -- history, land, military, vital records, etc. There is an additional list of films, fiche and tapes and periodical holdings. Film and fiche numbers given refer to the LDS collections. This is a useful book for researchers in California. Since it was done on a computer, it can be periodically updated to reflect new acquisitions at the libraries. lm CEMETERIES OF VIOLET TOWNSHIP, FAIRFIELD COUNTY, OHIO. Fairfield Co. Chapter OGS, P.O. Box 1470, Lancaster, OH 43130-0570. 1990. xiii leaves, 152 pp. Illus. Index. Softbound. $8.00 plus $1.50 shipping/handling. Ohio residents include sales tax of $.44.

This book of cemetery inscriptions was published in honor of the 175th anniversary of the founding of the town of Pickerington. Violet Township, originally part of Bloom Township, was established in 1808. All known cemeteries, with photographs, are included in this book. After a brief description of each, burials are listed row by row. Details on the condition and legibility of the tombstones reflect the ravages of time and give a sense of urgency to works such as this. Not all burial grounds are as fortunate as Bowers Cemetery which was cleared, mowed and repaired in 1990 by caring township trustees. An all-name index further enhances the work. lm

INDEX TO HISTORICAL COLLECTIONS OF OHIO BY HENRY HOWE (IN TWO VOLUMES). Prepared by Sandra Hudnall Day. Jefferson Co. Chapter OGS, P.O. Box 4712, Steubenville, OH 43952. 1990. (2), 87 pp. Softbound. $10.00.

This index was originally published by Mrs. Day in three parts. The 1900 edition was used to compile the index; the 1888 edition is the basis for the 2-volume publications and can also use this index. There are over 17,800 entries indexed in both of Howe's volumes. The index is printed in three columns per page with entries for name, volume, page and county. The compiler cautions that neither the original 1847 one volume edition or the later three volume editions can use this index. lm

THE WAY IT WAS, MAPLE HEIGHTS, OHIO. By John Straka. Jonelen Press, Inc., 5122 Erwin St., Maple Heights, OH 44137. 1987. 128 pp. Illus. $9.95 plus tax.

The author has been a resident of Maple Heights for most of his life and has written lovingly of the way it was 50 years ago. This book is a collection of thirty-one columns which appeared in the Maple Heights Press in 1987. Included are interesting photographs which are like a glimpse into a family album. My special favorites are the photo of the coal bin door, the shelves of the fruit cellar, and the author's mother and friends stripping feathers from poultry. Although Maple Heights is near the much larger city of Cleveland, it has managed to retain its separate character. lm

WHY ARE THERE NO TALL GRANDMA'S, by Scott B. Chase. Published by Heart of the Lakes Publishing, P.O. Box 299, Interlaken, NY 14847-0299, (800) 782-9687, 1990. 121 pp. Soft cover. $14.85 which includes tax and shipping.

Mr. Chase has written a very informative, easy to read, and at times humerous "How To" book on researching your family history. It is loaded with tips, techniques, and examples to help the reader in his or her search. This well indexed manual breaks the research task into four time periods. The author tells what resources are available for each time period as well as how to use them. The last chapter in the book suggests some of the problems that a genealogist may face in the year 2010. The appendix contains some of the charts and tables that are useful to the genealogist. re

If you are ready to write a family history and you are using an IBM or compatible computer and WordPerfect, this book may be for you. Mr. Ames goes into great detail about all aspects of writing using this program. Some of the books various chapters include The How and Why of a Family History, How to Use WordPerfect, Writing Text, Editing, Pictures and Graphics, and several others. A Key Reference Work National & Worldwide Family History Research

Editors: Keith A. Johnson & Malcolm R. Sainty

What is the G.R.D.?

The simplest, cheapest, most effective means of overcoming duplication of research which others may have already undertaken. International genealogist P.W. Filby of Maryland has written of the Directory: '... I regard it as one of the most important genealogical publications of the decade... '

The Directory lists in alphabetical order the family name being researched, the time period and place. Each entry then refers the reader to the name and address of the contributor. By corresponding with the contributor, much useful data may be exchanged by family historians. This is also an International Directory, very useful for family historians undertaking research in other countries.

The 1991 Directory contains:— $US27.00 including post and handling
